THE NEW CATHOLIC INSTITUTE-LAYING OF THE CORNER STONE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON .-The laying of the Corner Stone of the new Catholic Institute on the corner of Vinc and Longworth streets, yesterday afternoon, was the occasion of calling forth the largest sectarian procession that ever paraded the streets of Cincinnati. The number has been variously estimated at from five to seven thousand in the procession, and from sixteen to twenty thousand on the grounds. The procession formed at one o'clock P. M., and consisted of the following Associations:

First Division-Assistant Grand Marshal, H. H. Cohorst .- St. Mary's Society, Covington; St. Aloysius Young Men's Society, Covington-Newport; St. Michael's Society, Storrs Township; St. Aloysius Orphan Society, Cincinnati; German Relief Society, Cincinnati.

On arriving at the Institute, the corner stone was blessed and laid by Archbishop Purcell; after which an address in German was delivered by the Hon. Joseph E. Egly, and one in English by P. McGroarty, Esq.; after which the assemblage dispersed.

In the evening Pike's Opera House was filled to its capacity to listen to addresses by Donald McLeod Esq., Bishop Henni of Milwankee, and Archbishop Purcell.

SECOND TRIAL OF CHARLES COOK .- The second trial of Charles Cook for the murder of Kate Bureau (the verdict in the first trial having been set aside) commenced before Judge Dickson. The interest manifested on the occasion of the former trial seems very much to have aubsided, judging from the small number of spectators who were present yesterday. The interval between the two yesterday. The interval between the two trials—about five months, during the whole of which the defendant has been in confinement—seems to have produced but little change in his appearance. He seems in rath-er better health. In addition to his former counsel (Judge Matthews and F. A. Logan) James T. Worthington appears for the de-fence.

Two special venires have been issuedeach for thirty-six persons—from whom the jurors are to be selected. The process up to this time has been found a tedious one. One only has been selected—Alex. C. Clark.
The case will proceed to-day.

Amanda Lindsay was convicted of passing counterfeit money. The jury recommended her to the clemency of the Court.

(Correspondence of the "Daily Press."] EAGLE HOTEL, EATON, O., June 23d, 1859. EDITOR PRESS: It is scarce three weeks since a terrible conflagration spread over this place, which, for a while, threatened to sweep every thing before it. The loss was from $35,000 to $40,000—the total insurance on which was $8,646—$3,000 in the Etna and Preble Mutual, which will, or has been paid; the balance was in the Cleveland and Washington Union office, who are very backward in coming forward. The insurers do not expect to get a dollar from them. Notwithstanding this the property helders have set to work with a zeal cor already the walls of a new block are fast being raised. Masons and hod-fellows are hard at work from morn till night, and seen, Phoenix like, the entire square will, as 'twere, arise from the ashes; and in future we hope those wishing insurance will remember and get insured in some safe Cincinnati office—some one,

for instance, that advertises in the Parss.

Talking of masons and had-fellows reminds me the above orders have a fine lodge in this place, the Odd Felllows having lately finished a neat Hall; it is well furnished and reflects much credit upon that noble Order. They are quite numerous, and their proceedings are characterized by much liberality.

Well, the crops, the crops, that is the talk.

The last beautiful spell of weather has killed off the croakers; they have "gone up," for really there never was really there never was a more encouraging prospect for the farmer. Corn fields look lux-triant; the barley is being garnered, the wheat is bowing its head in very mockery at those who talked so glibly of its utter failure. I was, this morning, shown some wheat, sixty acres, the owner of which offered to sell out entirely, at $2 00 per acre, only three weeks since; to-day he refused $25 00 an acre.

I shall write you again from Richmond Yours truly, A The Evansville Enquirer of the 21st uit.

The completest thing in the way of a Refrigerator it has been our lot to witness thus far, was yesterday shown us by Messrs. A. R. & G. H. Miller, at the general house furnishing goods establishment, 237 State street, corner of Jackson. The article referred to is Winship's Improved Self Ventilating Refrigerator. The idea is to let the foul air pass off by means of ventilation, and while the air adnitted is not sufficient to effect the melting of the ice to any observable extent, it is sufficient for the purpose; thus instead of everything tasting alike, as is the case with other ice boxes, you have cool and natural flavored food when stored in a "Winship."—Chicago Press & Tribune.

If the "Refrigerator" be what we are led to suppose, an agency here would make it pay well. We want a "Winship."

The Gold News.—They say that all is not gold that glitters, but the dispatches this morning leave no doubt of the existence of rich gold mines in the vicinity of Pike's Peak. Horace Greeley bears evidence of the fact, and no more reliable testimony than his could be desired. We hope it will be sufficient to convince one New York journal, at least, of the truth of the statements recently made in connection with this matter. We regard it as a fortunate circumstance that Mr. Greeley is in the midst of the mines at this time .- St. Louis

RE-INTERMENT OF THOSE WHO PELL IN PERRY'S VICTORY ON LAKE ERIE.-The Masonic Fraternity of Erie, Pa., propose to perform this ceremony on the 4th of July, as will be seen by the following extract of a letter, dated Erie, Pa., June 7, 1859: "We are to have a grand Masonic parade and festival on the next anni-versary of our nation's birthday. The great object of the military demonstration to be held here on the Fourth of July is to re-inter the remains of those who gloriously fell in battle in Commodore Perry's fleet, in the war of 1812. Their remains have recently been exhumed by the excavations now making on the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, at the bank of the lake overlooking our harbor.

It is stated that about half the crew of the United States frigate St. Lawrence have gone in a body to Washington, to lay serious complaints before the Secretary of War. They state that revolting punishments have been instate that revoluing punishments have been in-flicted upon them, and some of their heads were shaved, and that while suffering from de-lirium, resulting from the broiling sun upon their unprotected heads, numbers of them jumped overboard. They also complain that they had been unjustly fined in sums which acrossly diminish the amount so hardly seriously diminish the amount so hardly carned. The health of some of the men is said to have been so much undermined by protracted severity, as to incapacitate them for further duty in the service.

EXTRACT OF WORDS.—The following anecdote is related of an Eastern monarch, and is exceedingly suggestive. We once heard of a distinguished physician who thanked God because he was deaf, since it saved him from hearing a word of nonsense. But we are inclined to think that quite as much nonsense enters through the eye as the ear.

The monarch had a library containing books enough to load a thousand camels. "I can not read all this," said be. "Select the cream and essence of it, and let me have that." Whereupon the librarian distilled this ocean of words down to thirty camel loads. "Too bulky and the monarch (II have

COLUMBUS NEWS.

Columbus, June 23.

THE METCALF CASE,-Martha Metcalf was brought before the Court last evening for sentence, the motion for a new trial being overruled by Judge Bates. In the remarks of the Judge before passing sentence, he said to her that she could not keep her house open for the purpose of prostitution unknown to the people in that vicinity, and if she continued in violating the law, she must expect to be brought to trial therefor. Before the passing of the sentence, her counsel pledged the Court that the house would be broken up, and while the tears were trickling down the cheeks of the prisoner, Judge Bates sentenced her to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution, the largest amount that could be assessed by law, omitting imprisonment on account of the pledge through her counsel.

THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE .- This matter was again before the City Council last evening, when, by the showing of Mr. S. S. Cox, attorney for the contestant, Mr. Crary would be elected by twelve votes over Mr. Jones, who obtained the certificate of election and held his seat until he was indicted by the Grand Jury for obtaining illegal votes, when he resigned. This matter has been tampered with long enough, and the citizens are beginning to feel an interest on the subject. If Mr. Crary has a right to his seat in the Council, they should give it to him; if not, let them order a special election, and decide the matter at once.

THE WHEAT CROP. - From specimens of wheat received from twenty-seven counties in this State, by the Board of Agriculture, it appears that none of it is very badly injured. A specimen of Belgium wheat was received this morning from a gentleman residing in Clermont county, who declared on the streets of this city, two weeks ago, that his crop was an entire loss; and it now turns out that his spe men is the finest received from any part of the State.

FIREMEN'S MEETING .- The Franklin Fire Co. No. 5, has a meeting this (Friday) evening at their Engine House, on Gay street. A full attendance is requested.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Co. No. 4: holds a meeting on Saturday evening.

The American Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1. holds a meeting on Monday evening, to make all necessary arrangements for their pic-nic at Stewart's Grove, South of this city, on the Fourth of July. The arrangements for this celebration were made before any action was taken by our citizens in the matter, and an attempt to compromise and have the Hook and Ladder boys with the citizens, has proved fruitless. We will now have two celebrations, one at the North and the other at the South end of the city.

BongLary .- John Wider was arrested, yesterday, for breaking into L. & W. B. Brooks' wholesale grocery, and stealing about $80 or $100 worth of groceries. His trial before the Mayor was continued until Saturday. The goods were found in the grocery of Sars. Clark, on Broad street, and he was arrested, to-day, charged with receiving the goods, knowing them to be stolen.

THE C., P. & IA. R. R.-Laborers are busily engaged in digging away the dirt and laying a track across High street, to connect with the C., C. & C., and Central Ohio Railroads, in the Union Depot. The improvements are expected to be completed in two weeks. This road is in excellent order, and doing a fine business since it was finished to Union City.

Girstes .- A large gang of Gipsies are encamped about a mile South of this city. The women visit the city telling fortunes, and the men go through the country trading horses.

CASE OF FRANCIS MILLER.-Francis Miller was to-day found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year.
